The DIMMER VIEW

Too Much Policing Here?

Do we need more police or less?

On the one hand there are those who complain that there are too many California Highway Patrol officers along Broadway in Lemon Grove.

On the other hand the principal of nearby O'Farrell Junior High school charges that San Diego Police did not respond to a call for help when two R.O.T.C. students were beaten on campus at an Open House ceremony last week. O'Farrell is on Skyline dr. just south of Lemon Grove.

D. A. Hennes, the principal, said he was visited the next day by public relations officers of the Department but no explanation was given for the failure.

The vice principal, Charles Kerridge, who also called for help, is equally nonplussed One school official said that police have been requested by some schools to stay off campus because their appearance would tend to worsen conditions. O'Farrell officials did not make such a request.

During the next three days six different S.D. Police departments denied knowledge of a request for aid at O'Farrell. The injured students did not require hospitalization, the principal said, but a parent's car was stolen during the confusion.

In the other but unrelated case, complaints have been registered with the California Highway Patrol that patrol officers are "over-policing" Broadway in Lemon Grove. The fact that the complaint comes from bar owners should not lessen the sincerity of the complaint.

The complaint is that bar patrons who stop in for a "belt or two" are often followed by a patrolman who cites the patron when he makes a traffic mistake. This constitutes harrassment, at least two Broadway bar owners aver.

"We do have more patrolmen in Lemon Grove than formerly," Lt. Don Tanner, a CHP supervisory officer said Saturday. Actually, we have more officers in most areas because this district has been allotted more men this year.

"Lemon Grove is presently assigned more of these men because the accident rate on Broadway in Lemon Grove is higher than the district average.

"Our responsibility is to take whatever action necessary to change this situation. When Broadway-Lemon Grove accident rate falls below that of some other community, these extra men will take up patrols in that area until the condition is bettered," he said.

"Bar owners are correct. We are citing drinking drivers on Broadway. It doesn't make sense that we ignore that drinking drivers are being poured onto a thoroughfare carrying high volume traffic on a roadway poorly engineered for high volume traffic without our department taking corrective action. This Department does not condone the harrassment of any business firm but neither does it intend to condone traffic violations without appropriate corrective action," Tanner said.

Howard M. Taylor, San Diego County Engineer has spent several years attempting to get local property owners to collaborate in an improvement program on Broadway between Olive and Kempf streets so that ample public parking, in addition to safety, can be provided and maintained. Sign-ups are nearly completed under the able direction of L.G. Chamber of Commerce president Bob Russell.

Taylor has repeatedly provided figures showing the Broadway strip to have the highest accident incidence of any similar road in the county. U-turns and crossovers on Broadway between Imperial and Kempf will eventually be controlled by center dividers and traffic curbs. The bottleneck between Imperial and Olive, long a hazard of gigantic proportions, will be opened up in conjunction with the improvement program.

The county engineer, in a fully documented inch-thick road improvement plan titled TOPICS (Traffic Operational Program to Improve Capacity and Safety) reveals the severity of the Lemon Grove traffic problems. The study, dated January, 1971, shows that 33,000 vehicles per day pass thriugh the Broadway-Imperial intersection for an increase of 10% since 1966. Accidents there totaled 18, an increase of 225% during the same period.

Mid-block problems also increased. 18,500 vehicles a day travel east or west on Broadway, an increase of 9%. Mid-block accidents totaled 33, an increase of 158% Five of these (15%) were at Broadway and Olive. Accidents on 2,000 miles of county operated roads have increased 65%. Population in the county has increased 20% during this period.

In seeking out information on the patrol activities, a CHP officer pointed to crash marks on an abutment at the Broadway-Olive bottleneck to emphasize the need for strong patrol service. This "death trap, it was said, would be eliminated with the coming improvement.

We suppose even another difference of opinion about policing exists at Lemon Grove's only "complete nudity" bar at the west end of Broadway. Apparently the bar proprietor and his enthusiastic patrons approve of lovely, talented ladies "exercising constitutional rights of freedom of expression" by dancing in the altogether. In opposition are most local residents who view with distaste this form of "entertainment" on the main stem of their home town. Our own mini-poll of ten revealed a 9-1 score against nudie shows. Admittedly, the approving vote was cast in the saloon while the show was going on. The bug-eyed patron didn't exactly say "yes" he said "boy!"

Also in opposition must be the police. The nudie show has been shut down more than it has been open since starting here last month.

Such is the situation on policing in the general area during the past week. We need more — or less — depending on where your level of interest lies.

Barbecue, Entertainment Planned For OTD 'Kick-off' Saturday Nite

Old Fashioned Dinner On Tap at VFW Hall

The "kick-off" comes Saturday but the full game is two weeks away.

The kickoff will be marked Saturday at 7:30 with an old-fashioned barbecue dinner at V.F.W. Hall, 2885 Imperial ave., in Lemon Grove. Old Time Days will be celebrated May 20-22.

The dinner will be preceded by a social hour starting at 6:30 or earlier.

dinner chairman, the menu will consist of barbecued chicken, ham and beef, cole slaw, beans and coffee all for $4 a person. The meal will be catered by El Amigo Cafe.

Dinner tickets will be validated for a free seat in the bleachers on Mayfair parking lot for the Old Time Days Parade May 22. Without validation, seats are $1. There will also be door prizes. Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce office or at Dorman's law office.

Following dinner a long list of entertainers will be on hand. There'll be the inevitable "Harold the Terrible", magician; the Woman's Lib Kitchen Band; the Lemonettes starring Lemon Drop and Lemon Drip two outstanding beauties. Miss Lemon Grove, the beauteous Laura Jean Bolieu, will also be present. Levis and Laces square dance club will put on a dance demonstration.

George Tonner, OTD publicity chairman, said Tuesday that radio personalities who have confirmed an appearance at the banquet include Deane Long, KITT; Harry Martin, KFMB; Bobby Oceans, KCBQ; Bill Sweet, KOGO; Jim Duncan, KSON, and Perry Allen, KSDO.

Wilson emphasized that the dinner is only the beginning of the Old Time Days celebration.

On Sunday, at 11 a.m. on KOGO television (channel 10) will be an OTD program. Featured there will be the Lemonettes with its new addition, Lemon Drop, a 6'4", 280 lb. "beauty".

Bob Mastney, parade chairman, said this year's edition of the parade will be the biggest. There are more entries this year than last, he said.

Starfire Project Rejected

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors have voted down, three to two, a planned residential development for Starfire Homes in Lemon Grove.

Ample evidence of local opposition was presented to the board by several speakers and petitions containing 300 names.

The PRD was not large. It contained ten, one story duplex structures at the south end of New Jersey st.

Both the planning commission and department had recommended that the special use permit be granted.

A department memo said density would be only 6½ an acre on the 3.1 acres. A density of 14.5 units an acre is allowed in the R-2-A zone which also allows duplexes.

Planning Director Dan Cherrier said the project should provide good quality housing at reasonable costs, with assurance that quality be maintained by a property owners' association.

The opposition, however, was not assured. Most of the area has developed as single family housing and most of the residents would like to see it remain that way.

OUR LITTLE MISS — Cindy Wright, the 11-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright, of 436 Maria ave., Spring Valley, won the title of Our Little Miss in a contest held April 25 at the Lions Club Convention Hall in Chula Vista. Cindy, as Our Little Miss for the South Bay area, will compete for the Our Little Miss California title in June. Competition for Our Little Miss includes modeling sports wear, a three-minute talent performance, and modeling a party dress. Cindy played an electric guitar and sang during the contest.

LG 'Nudie' Decision Delayed

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A decision on whether a Lemon Grove "nudie spot" can continue to operate was put off Monday in Superior Court until May 14.

Jerome Lafreniere, operator of the Naughty Spot, 7268 Broadway, Lemon Grove, is suing to have the county ordinance on nude shows declared unconstitutional because it contains no reference to obscenity.

Lafreniere claims that an April 9 "raid" closed his place just after it opened. Deputies cited Christine Ann Byerly, 22, for nude dancing. She said she danced for less than a minute when cited.

The delay was ordered by Judge Franklin B. Orfield to allow attorneys to file briefs on the law. Peter Clarke, representing Lafreniere, claims that the U. S. Supreme Court has held that nudity by itself is not obscene.

Lafreniere said he is now operating his club three times a week with "topless" entertainment.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department responded to two fire calls this past week, both grass fires, but no property damage reported. One fire was apparently started by children playing with firecrackers and the other by a man's pipe ashes.

One rescue run was made to 8149 Roy st., where two-year old Shannon Wolford had swallowed four "Fem Iron" pills. An attending doctor said here was no dangerous effects of the pills.

County Tax Increase of Whopping 82 Cents Eyed

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Living in San Diego County is going to be a lot more expensive. You'll know just how expensive when you get your property tax bills this fall.

As an example, the preliminary budget is $67,200,276 higher than the present budget — reaching nearly $307 million. The increase alone is more than the $62 million total budget for 1958-59.

Such an increase would be reflected in a hike of 82 cents in the rate — from $2.74 to $3,565 per $100 assessed valuation. The present $2.74 is up 39 cents from last year.

And that isn't all! More than half of all county property owners got sad news this week. Assessed valuations went up firmly on the average 10% higher. (related assessment story elsewhere in this issue)

And if that isn't enough, there's an item of $34 million in welfare which may be well underestimated because of the uncertainty of the effect of increased welfare payments ordered by Gov. Reagan.

A $3½ million law-and-justict cost will be in the budget.

Not included is money for county personnel salary increases. This will be added to the final budget to make it more readily identifiable.

Surplus carryover funds, often used to ease the burden, have already been used for increased welfare costs.

Budget hearings will start June 10.

Half of All Property Gets Assessment Boost

If you got a white post card from your "friendly assessor" recently you were in the 50% group of those whose property's assessed valuation was increased this year.

County Assessor E. C. Williams said this week that 207,000 of the 415,000 county property owners who would have received a notice of assessed value increase would have been received by today.

Assessed valuation is described as the fair market value of the property. Williams said value of San Diego County property has been increasing at the rate of five per cent annually due to inflation alone. Actual sales records are kept to back up appraisals.

Notices have been sent only to those whose property has been reassessed upwards. Those who wish to dispute the assessment may discuss it with the assessor's office.

"Property owners," Williams said, "will get a willing ear from those who have a valid argument regarding the valuation of their property as seen by the assessor."

Williams said that an aide, who wanted to be helpful, had underscored the phrase on the reassessment card reading "call the assessor". (He said 400-500 calls a day are coming in asking "you wanted me to call. What do you want?"

"The assessor's office has people standing by to discuss the honest differences of opinion regarding increased assessed valuation," he said.

If a difference remains the owner may go to the assessment appeals board, he said.

Assessment appeals should be filed from July 1 to Sept. 15, Williams said.

California property is assessed at 25 per cent of its market value for taxing purposes.

Under state law, Williams is required to notify owners of increased valuation if the increase is 25 per cent or more.

Fire Season Starts

Key stations of the California Division of Forestry of California started its 24-hour operation this week.

A crackdown on brush clearance violations starts this week, the Department said.

It also means an intensified effort to enforce the 30-foot clearance law that calls for the removal of brush around structures.

Local Schools Start 45-15 Plan in July

Trustees of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District voted Monday night to go ahead with an optional 12-month school program at three schools in Spring Valley.

The action taken at a regular meeting of the board of trustees was the end result of a special study committee in the La Presa area which was asked a few months ago to undergo a study of the feasibility of the year-round program.

The committee invited parents of school children who will be involved in the program to attend sessions and respond to questionnaires about the program.

Results show that 77% of the parents in the La Presa area who attended meetings were in favor of the program and only 12% would refuse to allow their youngsters in the program.

Under guidlines set up by trustees, parents will have the option of having their youngsters sent to nearby schools with traditional programs by bus. Schools that will start on the new program will be La Presa Junior High School, La Presa Elementary School, and Ranch Elementary School.

Schools in the La Presa area that will remain on the traditional nine-month program are Kempton Street School and Avondale School.

Schools in the La Presa area are now operating at more than capacity, according to Roy Williams, principal of La Presa Junior High School.

William Pasley, principal at La Presa Elementary, where overcrowded conditions are severest in the district, said that right now many youngsters who would ordinarily be attending his school are being bussed to less crowded schools in the district.

Under the twelve month school program, school capacities will be increased 25%, which will enable youngsters to attend schools closer to their homes, provided that their parents want them to attend the 12-month program.

Under the 45-15 plan, one fourth of the schools' total enrollment will start school in July, attending for nine weeks, then taking a three-week vacation. By staggering the groups, only 75% of the total enrollment will be in class at the same time, while 25% will be off.

The 45-15 plan was first put into operation by the Valley View School District in Illinois, and has since been considered by many districts as a possible way to avoid expenditures for new schools.

The three local schools, along with schools in the Chula Vista School District, will be the first schools in San Diego County to adapt the program. The Lakeside School District is set up to launch the program for the 1972-73 school year, and the Cajon Valley School District is also weighing possibilities of the program.

Williams noted that groups will be determined on a geographic basis, so that members of the same family and students in the same neighborhoods will be on vacation together.

Reactions of parents ranged from complete agreement to total opposition. "I would like to see all schools go on the 12-month plan," said one parent. Another added, "I think this is the best plan to hit the area in a long time."

Other parents disagreed, claiming that "Double sessions would be better than all this messing around." Another parent said, "The whole idea stinks!"

Williams said that, if there is enough room in the program after satisfying the needs of youngsters in the local attendance areas, students from other schools in the district may be admitted into the program under existing district policy.

District policy now allows for intradistrict transfers, although parents of transfer students must provide transportation.

Slow, Frequent Rain Foretells Fire Hazard

The .15 of an inch of rain that fell during last week's storm, plus another .09 in a new storm this week, brought the season's total to 9.48, according to the meteorologist at the fire station, Romeo Marcon. There were several threatening periods when only a trace came — but these were not measurable.

For the same period a year ago the total was 8.48 inches. Rainfall season is from July 1. Rain measurement is taken at 4 p.m. daily.

R. R. Richardson To Head United Crusade

Appointment of R. R. Richardson as vice chairman of the 1971 United Crusade of San Diego County has been announced by Patterson N. "Pat" Hyndman, general chairman.

Richardson is secretary-treasurer of the San Diego-Imperial Counties Labor Council, a position to which he was first elected in 1964.

He will work with other volunteer community leaders throughout the county in raising funds for local human care agencies. Last year's campaign raised a record $5.5 million.

"A major factor in the acceptance of the United Crusade concept in San Diego County has been the effective partnership between organized labor and top business leadership", Hyndman said.

"With the leadership of 'Rich' Richardson, we are able to help develop and carry out successful United Crusade solicitation among organized labor throughout San Diego."

Active in numerous civic and community organizations, Richardson has served on the boards of the USO, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, and San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau. Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Cinco de Mayo" appears to be an important holiday in Mexico. On this day they have "fiestas," bull fights, and other special events. We have noticed how the phrase "Cinco de Mayo" is a term used in advertising and sales promotion in the United States. Please explain the significance.

In 1862, Mexico, under the presidency of Benito Juarez, faltered in payments of an enormous Reform-War loan to France. France sent six thousand troups inland from the coastal city of Veracruz to intervene in Juarez' government. Upon their arrival in Puebla, the patriotic Mexicans drove out the French on "Cinco de Mayo" (The Fifth of May) representing the first time that ill-armed troups of Mexico had been successful in defending themelves against a major foreign power.

Mexico's victory only brought a larger scale intervention by France. Napoleon sent more troops, seized the country, and offered the monarchy of Mexico to Maximilian of Hapsburg. President Benito Juarez, recognized by the United States, retreated to the northern Mexican border. The continuing conflict cost more French lives and money than Napoleon had anticipated. The United States notified France of this violation of the Monroe Doctrine and Napoleon eventually withdrew the majority of his troops, leaving Maximilian almost unarmed.

As Benito Juarez' troops moved southward to retake Mexico, Maximilian unsuccessfully led his remaining troops against the Mexican Nationals. The two forces met in Queretaro where Maximilian was captured. A court ordered his death before a firing squad on June 19, 1867, concluding French intervention.

Today "Cinco de Mayo" celebrations represent reflections of non-intervention, a reminder that freedom from intervention is highly valued. The practice phrases listed below salute "Cinco de Mayo". Call 276-2762 to listen to them.

Mail Bag

Dear Editor,

In your April 22 issue you published an article entitled "Grossmont District Graduates Doing Well According to Report."

I have some thoughts that were posed by, but not clarified by, this article.

The article states "Grossmont graduates entering San Diego State did slightly better than the grade-point average of all entering freshmen. Grossmont graduates averaged 2.50 while all entering freshmen averaged slightly lower at 2.48."

Looking at the social-economic makeup of the Grossmont High School District we have many families that have professional and semi-professional members. We do not have a heavy concentration of low income families that tend to bring down IQ averages. These factors as well as others help to contribute to an average student IQ of between 110 and 120. It seems that if our students have an IQ like this they should be averaging better than C plus in college.

Is this average college grade of 2.50 (C plus) an indicator of competitive college environment or a lack of quality education in high school?

If our San Diego State students are averaging a 2.50 (C plus) it makes me ask, what is the quality of the education received by the student that did not pursue college?

He is Agapito Ameng of 839 Ramona ave., Spring Valley and is named PWC employee of the Month. He was a special guest during a PWC Executive Board meeting and presented a Certificate of Merit naming him the command's Employee of the Month.

"Ameng is a top professional janitor and is an example for others to follow. He is always looking for new ways to do the job and improve his area. He participates in the on-the-job and formal janitorial training as an instructor," according to the letter of nomination.

He works in Building 33 at the Naval Electronics Laboratory Center. He maintains an area of about 16,000 square feet. His operating area includes the captain's office plus those occupied by other VIP and department heads. In addition, his responsibilities extend into administration and computer areas plus laboratories and conference rooms. He's versatile and his duties require different cleaning techniques for individual areas concerned.

"The choice of Ameng as PWC Employee of the Month is an excellent one. He is one of our most outstanding men. He is one of the most dependable men in my division and is always available for any job assigned," is the way Ed Sandusky explained Ameng.

Sandusky is PWC Janitorial Branch Manager and a resident of 551 Broadview st., Spring Valley.

Head of the Maintenance Department Walt McCollum, of 7915 Lincoln st., Lemon Grove, said Ameng is the type of employee any department can be proud of. "He sets a splendid example for others. Consent Cards Sought for Minors At Grossmont

Parents are urged to register their children with the Grossmont Hospital Auxiliary Emergency Minor Consent program. Files were started in October with distribution of consent cards through the local schools. At present 10,000 consent cards are on file but many are missing. Cards are available in the hospital lobby or the auxiliary office.

Legally, a minor cannot be treated without the consent of an authorized adult. The cards list three "agents" who have permission of the parents to give consent for emergency treatment when the parents cannot be located. This situation arises three or four times a week.

"We hope to correct this" say Mrs. Ellis Penny, file chairman, "by urging parents now to secure cards and file them immediately."

Agents may be relatives, neighbors, friends, clerical or the family doctor. Any emergency unit, other hospital, or authorized persons may obtain information from our files.

Delays in treatment are avoided by use of this free community service. Further information is available at the Grossmont Hospital Auxiliary office — 465-0711.

Spring Valley Tracksters Finish Season Undefeated

Mt. Miguel High School's track and field team invaded Granite Hills stadium last Friday night and came away with its seventh victory in as many league meets to wind up the league season.

The win for Mount Miguel gave the Matadors the Grossmont League title.

The meet started at 5:30 p.m. with field events, and as the sun went down and the lights came on, the track events followed.

Mount Miguel took a 28-26 advantage after field event totals were in. John Heimaster and Mike King were the big guns for the Matadors in the field, as King picked up firsts in the shot put and the discus, and Heimaster got first in the long jump and third in the triple jump.

Other field event winners for Mount Miguel included John Slater, who won the high jump with a leap of 6-1.

In track events, the Eagles drew first blood, picking up firsts in the 100, 220, and 440, to take a 21-6 advantage. Mount Miguel came back to nail down 1-2 finishes in the 880, mile and two-mile, however, to get back on top, 30-24.

Things grew dim for Mount Miguel when Larry Tyer was unable to compete, sitting out with a sprained ankle. The Matador 440-yard relay team still managed to win, however, when a bad baton pass killed the Eagles' chances in that event.

Dave Rower, who has been competing on the "B" squad all year, ran the first leg of the event for Mount Miguel.

Granite Hills captured the mile relay to complete the scoring, bringing the totals to 76-60 in favor of the Spring Valley school.

Top stars in the field events included Steve Goward for Granite Hills in the 100 and 200, who won both his races, along with Milt Johnson and Jerry Eubanks for Mount Miguel.

Johnson took second in the 100 and first in the 180-low hurdles, while Eubanks nailed down first in the 120-high hurdles, and second in the 180-lows.

Other first place winners for Mount Miguel included Bob Morrison in the mile, Joe Stubbs in the two-mile, and Larry Trask in the 880.

With the league dual-meet season out of the way, Mount Miguel will look toward tomorrow's league preliminaries to be held on the El Capitan oval at 1 p.m.

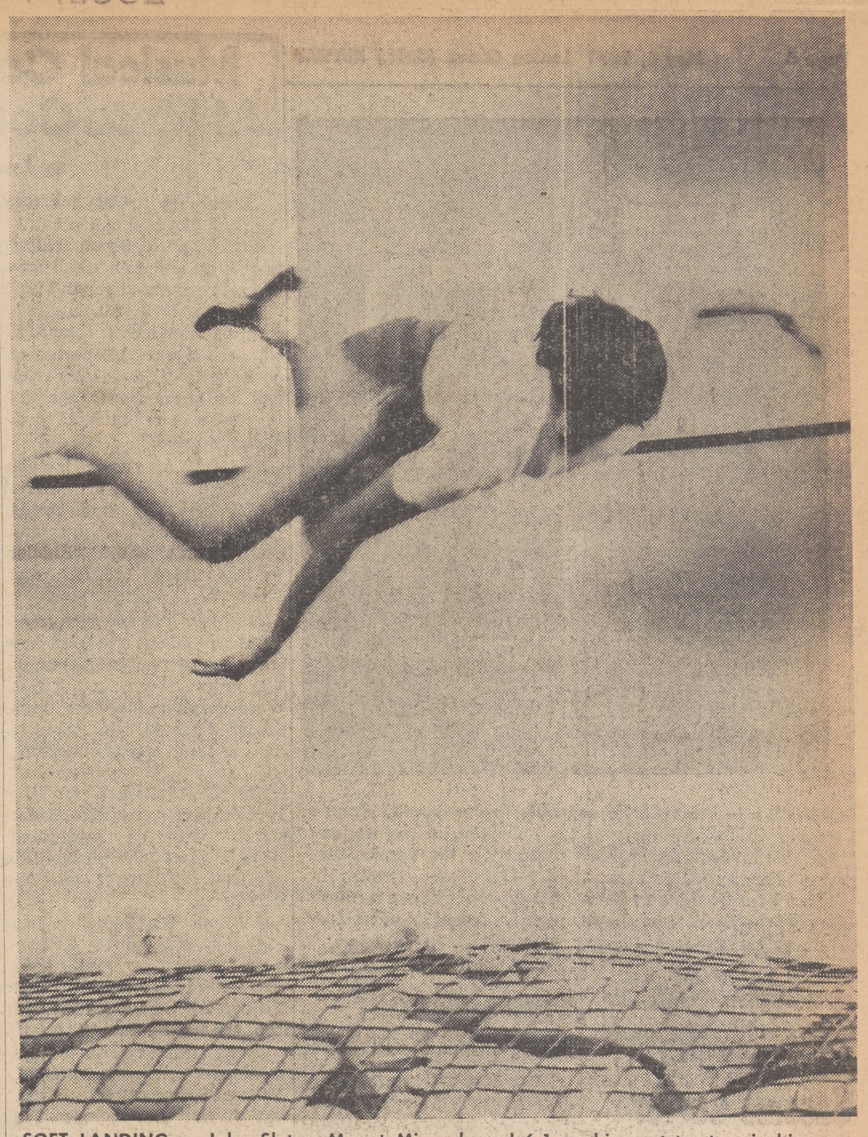
Mount Miguel will have five potential first place athletes in the competition in Mike King, Milton Johnson, John Heimaster, John Slater, and Jerry Eubanks.

Athletes with outside chances include Larry Tyer in the 100, Miguel's mile relay team, and Larry Trask in the 880.

Mike King and Milton Johnson lead the Miguel hopes, as both hold the best marks in the league in their specialties. King's 54-1 is the top mark in the shot put and Johnson's 19.8 in the 180lows is the loop's best. Both marks were set in Friday's meet with the Eagles.

John Heimaster is among the league's best long jumpers, and with an extra four inches or so, could win the event, while John Slater needs another inch and a half in the high jump to claim the top mark. Jerry Eubanks has run 15.5 in the 120-high hurdles, just behind the league's best of 15.4.

Tyer has run just inches behind Monte Vista's Marc Romano, the league's best in the 100-yard dash, and Larry Trask needs only to bring his 880 time down one and a half seconds to be a threat. The Matadors' mile relay team, which chased Granite Hills' crew to a new league mark Friday, must be considered a threat.



SOFT LANDING — John Slater, Mount Miguel's ace high jumper, takes his mind off the crossbar momentarily as he looks forward to a soft landing in the Granite Hills "porta-pit". Slater missed this attempt, but cleared 6-1 on his next try to win his specialty and help his team beat the Eagles for the league title. Slater has a fair chance of leading field in tomorrow's league preliminaries at El Capitan High School at 1 p.m.

County Gets $725,000

The Ford Foundation announced a grant of $725,000 to the County of San Diego to help local governments in the region improve their capacity for environmental management.

William Felling, Ford Foundation spokesman, said this region was selected to receive the first grant of its kind because "its environment has escaped extreme damage thus far and is still largely 'savable'."

He said the demonstrated attitude of the region is one of wanting to preserve a good balance between public and private goals, and also pointed out that the region has large areas of desirable undeveloped land, coupled with tremendous pressures for development.

Luigi's Takes Pair; Grabs First Place

Luigi's Restaurant jumped into first place in Spring Valley Little League action last week by winning a pair of games.

Luigi's bounced S & H Martinizing, 8-4, last Tuesday night in the opening game of the season for both teams. On Friday night, Luigi's picked up another win, blasting Arnold & Company, 8-2. Steve Haney was the winning pitcher over Martinizing, while Russ Palser got the win over Arnold.

In other action, Jackson Supply knocked off Spring Valley Kiwanis 5-3 Monday night, Arnold beat Kelton Homes 11-12 Wednesday night, and Spring Valley Shopping Center upended Al's Electric, 8-4, Thursday night.

In games played Saturday afternoon, Martinizing beat S.V. Shopping, S.V. Kiwanis buried Kelton Homes, 17-5, and Al's Electric bombed Jackson Supply, 8-1.

Highlights of the week's games included a home run by James Fleming for Kiwanis as they beat Kelton Homes.

In intermediate league play, Cecil's Hancock Service and Mary Browne Realtor won two games each to move into a tie for the league. Cecil's blasted North Island Test Line, 11-1 and beat Oscar's Drive In, 7-4, while Browne belted North Island, 5-2, and squeezed by Art's Lumber, 12-10.

Art's Lumber beat Colorama TV, 13-9 in the only other game played. Colorama and Oscar's started a game Saturday which was declared no contest after only two innings were completed in the two-hour time limit.

In minor league action, Spring Valley Post Office beat Pat's Rentals, 9-5, and U.S.S. Prairie, 10-6, to take over first place. Four other teams split their two games for the week to tie with Rental's and Prairie for second place, while Moose Lodge 1713 lost two games to claim the cellar.

In the rookie league, Polar Frozen Foods and Foster's Freeze came out of the week's play in a deadlock for first place, both winning two games.

Foster's beat Stroh's Lomita Bowl and Spring Valley Shopping Center, while Polar won games over S.V. Boosters and Stroh's to keep pace.

In the only other game played, Spring Valley Boosters beat Spring Valley Shopping. The Boosters are now in third place, while Shopping is tied with Stroh's for fourth.

More action is set for this weekend, as teams from each division play at the Spring Valley Little League field this afternoon through Saturday evening. Games are also on tap each afternoon, Monday through Friday.

Lionettes Take Two Of Three For First Place

The Lions Club Lionettes moved into undisputed first place and the Associated Engineers Swingers went from first place to last place last week in wild action in the Lemon Grove Bobby Sox League.

The Lionettes, tied for first place at the beginning of last week's play with the Swingers, both with 1-0 records, lost one game and won a pair of contests to grab the loop lead.

The Swingers dropped both their games to settle for a tie for last place with the Skyline TV Gremlins.

On Monday, the Lionettes took on the Severin Realty Orioles, losing 10-4 as the Orioles scampered to make up ground lost in their first game which they forfeited after leading by 20 runs.

The Lionettes got back into action Friday night with an 11-3 conquest of the Quota Club Midgets. Cindy Hutton hit a double for the Lionettes in the contest.

On Saturday, the Lionettes came back again, this time with an 8-4 win over the Gremlins to claim first place.

Meanwhile the Swingers lost to the Gremlins, 44-7, and the Midgets, 30-0, and were trailing 21-9 to the Lemon Grove Boosters Angellettes, when that game was called because of darkness.

In minor league play, the Thomas and Son Disposal Stylists and the Catholic Daughters Cherubs both slipped up but remained deadlocked for first place in the standings.

The Stylists were foiled in the seventh inning of their game Monday as Pat Brumbaugh belted a double to bring in the winning run for the Lemon Grove Orthodontics Smilers. The Smilers won, 10-9.

The Cherubs won their first game of the week, knocking off the Lemon Grove Chrysler Plymouth Crickets, 20-8. The Cherubs came back to win again, this time a 5-1 decision over the IAM Lodge 2215 Emeralds. On Saturday, however, the Cherubs were bumped by the Nalco Plumbing Pipers, 13-9, for their first loss of the year. The Stylists won their only other two games, 19-10 over the Pipers, and 12-8 over the Crickets.

More action is set for this weekend, as games start Friday night and continue through Saturday evening. Game times are 5:30 p.m. Friday, and 9 a.m., noon, and 3 p.m. Saturday. Games are also scheduled for next week, at 5:30 p.m. each night except Thursday.

Hitt, Hale Fare Well In Races

Jim Hitt and Ed Hale, both of Lemon Grove, were among the top finishers in races Saturday night and Friday night at Cajon Speedway, as Hitt finished second in the super stock competition Saturday and Hale took second Friday night in super sprint car races.

On Friday night, El Cajon's Don Hamilton managed to pick up the win in the super sprint main event, but "Smilin' Ed" Hale was right behind at the finish line in the first Friday night program of the young season.

On Saturday night, Jim Hitt took his heat race and started eleventh in the 20-car field in the main event.

Hitt weaved his way through traffic to claim the third position after fifteen laps, but could not get around Larry Stahl for second place until the 29th lap. Meanwhile, Hale, who also started far back in the pack, managed to sneak into fourth place.

As all three drivers came around on the last lap trailing Russ Bullen, who led from the ninth lap on after starting in the fourth spot, Hale managed to edge in front of Stahl to claim third place.

Racing action gets underway again tomorrow evening with qualifying at 6:30 p.m. for super sprints and foreign cars. Super stock go at it on Saturday night, also at 6:30 p.m. with qualifying. First races are at 8 p.m. each night.

Dodgers Win Fourth Straight To Lead Lemon Grove League

The first two weeks of 1970 action in Lemon Grove Little League play saw the Dodgers with an 0-4 record. This year, manager Larry Cushman's squad has added an excellent starting pitcher, shored up a leaky defense and increased its run production and, as a result, now sports a perfect 4-0 mark.

The Dodgers looked impressive in their most recent two-game set by disposing of a tough Food Basket aggregation, 4-1 and 10-3.

In the opener, Jim Schroader unlocked a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning with a three-run homer over the left field fence. Sacramento transfer Tom Bolen hurled a two-hitter, surrendered only a pair of walks and struck out 12 to get the mound nod.

The second game found Chris Flores spinning a four-hitter and pounding a home run, double and single to pace a 12-hit attack. Don Bowers chipped in with two doubles and a single. Flores also had a triple in the first contest as Food Basket's slate dropped to 1-2-1.

Walker Scott remained unbeaten buut slipped just a shade off the pace by winning and tieing in two tries against Murphy Plumbing. They now stand at 3-0-1 while Murphy shows an 0-2-2 reading.

John Barrow took a 3-1 decision in the initial affair on a sixhitter as Mike Neagle lost despite giving up only one hit. Craig Leonetti belted a homer and Mike DiMaggio a triple for Murphy Plumbing to no avail. The second game was halted by darkness after eight innings at 3-3.

Defending titlist Mission Van and Storage suffered its first loss of the year but rebounded in its second try to rest at 2-1-1. Lemon Grove Lath and Plaster halted Mission Van 7-2 by scoring all its runs in the first two innings on two singles and six errors. Rex Jenner won it with a six hit job including 11 strikeouts.

Ray Cox and Dave Terrell combined fo a 1-0 nod over Tom Parker to give Mission Van the split. The pair meted only two hits as Parker lost it on a close play at home in the third inning.

In the week's final series, White Construction and Imperial Meats divided victories to leave the former at 1-2-1 and the latter at 1-3.

Righthander John Young pinned a one-hit pitching performance on the board and threw in 11 strikeouts for White Construction and his mates supported him with an 11-hit barrage for a 12-1 triumph.

Young aided his own cause with two hits and a walk while Robert Tiumalu slammed a double and two singles and Jock Marshall picked up two singles.

Imperial Meats evened matters in the second bout by scoring three times in the fifth and once in the sixth for a 5-4 speaker. Mark Williamson fanned 12 to take the pressure off a seven hitter. Tiumalu had two hits for White Construction to give him five for the series.

McNab Sees Gull Progress

For the San Diego Gulls, 1970-71 was another year of progress.

"We were certainly disappointed about finishing third again after holding second for most of the season," said General Manager-Coach Max McNab. "But the fact remains that we were second for most of the season in the toughest Western League in a long time. Give Phoenix lots of credit, they put on a great streak to take it away from us.

"We have to give Portland credit for the playoff win, too. They came through under very difficult circumstances to win it all. They showed what balanced scoring can do," added McNab.

The Gulls did accomplish a lot of things during the season. First of all, the 223 goals they allowed was the lowest total in their five-year history. "We did improve defensively," said McNab. "The club as a whole was more defensively sound."

McNab will be spending the coming weeks preparing for the Western Hockey League meetings, and the annual National League Meetings and hockey convention in Montreal.

The WHL meetings will be in Denver, May 24-26, while the NHL meetings will be June 7-10.

McNab's main objectives as far as player help is concerned will be at the center and defense positions. "We need a couple of all-around centermen, who can both check and score," said McNab. "We changed our center situation from an offensive-minded one to a defensive one, and we need a little more production."

Two Teams Tie For Bobby Sox League Lead

Ham's Painting/Easter Plumbing moved into a tie for first place with Norm's Gulf last week in Spring Valley Bobby Sox League action, as the team beat Foster's Freeze/Thomas Disposal, 12-9.

The win for Ham's/Easter brought the team's mark to 2-0, enough to tie Norm's Gulf, which was idle last week.

Always tough O'Dell Realty won a pair of games to emerge from the bottom of the standings to third place with a 2-1 mark. O'Dell edged Optimist Club, 3-2, on a fine pitching performance by Lori Chisnell, and blasted Johnson Excavating 26-9 later in the week.

In the only other major league game played, Galbreath Realty combined a heavy hitting attack with some fine pitching by Debra Mails to oust Spring Valley Woman's Club, 12-2.

In minor league play, Coastal Rigging and Broyles & Schafer/Sportland both won a pair of games to remain in a tie for first place with identical 3-0 marks.

Coastal Rigging beat San Diego Sandblasting, 38-24, and Pat Riley/So. Cal. First National 38-8, while Broyles/Sportland upended Riley/SCFN, 40-8, and belted Delp Plastering, 5-3.

In the only other contest held last week, it was San Diego Linen Supply knocking off S.D. Sand, 25-5.

Action gets underway again this week this evening at 5:45 p.m., tomorrow at 5:45 p.m., and Saturday at 9 a.m., 11:45 a.m., and 5:15 p.m. Next week's games include contests each night at 5:45 p.m. All games are played at Bancroft Elementary School.

Reds Here Friday To Beat On Padres

The pennant winning Cincinnati Reds and the division champion Pittsburgh Pirates, both scrambled by the Padres pretty good last year and remembering, arrive for their first San Diego Stadium showdown starting tomorrow.

First the Reds with three games and then the Pirates for a pair is the appealing menu.

And it's only fitting that tomorrow evening's showdown between the slugging Padres and the equally bombastic Reds also will be celebrated as Helmet Night.

All children 15 and under purchasing a ticket to the 7:30 p.m. game will receive free a handsome Padre souvenir helmet, similar to the one worn by Nate Colbert, Ollie Brown, Dave Campbell and other Padres when they take their swings against Cincinnati pitchers.

After the Helmet Night extravaganza, the Padres and the Reds square off Sat. night at 7:30 and on Sunday starting at 10 p.m. The Pirates arrive for night games Tuesday and Wednesday, May 11 and 12.

Two Grossmont College Girls Set For Trip

Grossmont College students Jill Fitzsimmons and Joanne Krantz have been selected to attend Goluburn Teachers College in Goulburn, Australia under an exchange program sponsored by the Associated Students' of Grossmont College and Goulburn Teachers College.

In the exchange, two students from Goulburn Teachers College will attend Grossmont College during the 1971-72 school year.

The Australian Teachers College and the Associated Students of Grossmont College have provided all tuition, student fees, books and a host family for the exchange students. The exchange students must provide funds for their personal expenses without having to seek part-time employment.

Air transportation is being raised by donations from community and civic clubs in order to promote goodwill between the two communities and further the education of the students involved.

'Plaza Suite' To Close On Mother's Day

"Plaza Suite", the hilarious Broadway comedy hit by Neil Simon, begins its few days at the Off Broadway Theatre tonight and will close on Mother's Day, May 9.

Starring Dana Andrews and Pamela Britton, "Plaza Suite" was directed by Jack Ragotzy and features Michael Biers, Michael Phillips and Kandice Chappell in the cast.

The play is actually three short vignettes which deal with couples visiting from three different parts of the country and occupying the same suite at New York's famous Plaza Hotel. There is no thread to weave them together and the only similarity between the three sketches is the constant laughter evoked from each.

The next attraction for the Off Broadway Theatre is another comedy which was an outstanding hit on Broadway. It's "Forty Carats" and will open May 11.

Education Class Scheduled For Summer Session

A special 3-unit summer course, "Introduction to Education", will be offered by Southwestern College beginning June 22, it was announced by Vincent Alfaro, Dean of Applied Arts and Sciences.

"It is an exploratory course, and will include a broad overview of the teaching profession and requirements for various credentials," Alfaro said.

He said students may have an opportunity to observe instructors in the classroom at the grade level and subject matter of their interest. Also included in the course will be a history of education, how it is financed, what the professional opportunities are, and some theories of the learning process.

The class will meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. and will be taught by an experienced teacher. The course will count as an elective, and is transferable to a four-year college as such.

Registration for the class can be made through the Admissions Office, which is open daily from 7:40 a.m. until 8 p.m. Information regarding all summer registration may be obtained from the same office.

John Cash Due Here May 30

Johnny Cash, undisputed King of Modern Country Music and one of the most successful recording artists of all time, will headline a musical extravaganza at the International Sports Arena May 30, at 8 p.m.

Sharing the spotlight with Cash, will be his wife, singing star June Carter; Carl Perkins, the Statler Brothers and the memorable Carter Family.

The concert will be sponsored by Radio Station KSON. Tickets, which range in price from $4.50 to $7.50, will be available at KSON in the College Grove Shopping Center; the Sports Arena and its central ticket agencies, all Sneaker Inns, and Bill Gamble's Men's Stores.

Cash first skyrocketed to fame in the mid-1950's with "I Walk the Line" and "Orange Blossom Special." His hit "Ring of Fire" was written by his wife, and one of their most popular duets is "Jackson."

Cash's cut at Folsom Prison sold more than two million albums and tapes and he holds the all-time attendance record at London's Palladium Theater. The Johnny Cash Show is a popular feature on ABC Wednesday nights.

The Statler Brothers are best remember for their hit, 'Counting Flowers on the Wall," and Carl Perkins' biggest hit was "Blue Suede Shoes."

Organist Featured At Show Sat.-Sun.

Gaylord Carter will be featured organist at the sixth presentation of Southland Music Center's sing-along Saturday and Sunday at the old Grove theatre.

The program, backed by silent Harold Lloyd comedies of another era, will be at 8 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday.

Carter was organist at leading Los Angeles theatres and top radio shows during the pre-teevee period. He was organist on California Melodies, Hollywood Hotel, the Packard Show and for eight years introduced the nightly Amos and Andy Show playing "The Perfect Song."

Jim Hansen and Tommy Stark, co-owners of Southland Music, owners of the theatre, said there would be more organ-flicker shows each second Saturday and Sunday.

Tickets are $2. Reservations may be made by calling 463-0308.

When Thomas A. Edison invented the phonograph, the first sounds were recorded on tinfoil wrapped around a cylinder.

New Park Fees

New fees for use of County park facilities became effective May 1, according to Cletus W. Gardner, County Parks and Recreation Director. The fees cover group use and individual camp sites.

Higher than last year, Gardner said the fees generally conform to those charged by the State for similar facilities.

Camp sites with complete utility hookups are available at $4 a night. Developed areas suitable for tent camping are $3 a night; semideveloped sites cost $2 a night.

New fees for group use of picnic and dance facilities will be on a sliding scale, depending on location and size. Groups wanting reservations and cost information can telephone 239-7711, Ext. 672.

No reservations are taken for camping sites. Information on the location of the different types of camp areas is available from the Department of Park and Recreation, Room 205, Cunty Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

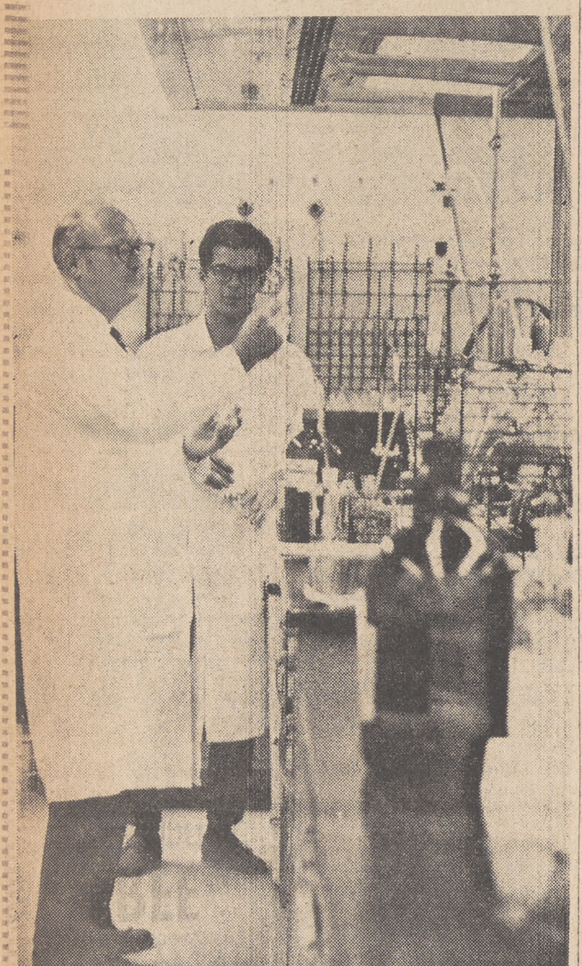
San Diego County Coroner Not Like Those In Mystery Novels

Nothing about San Diego County Coroner Robert L. Creason, his staff, or his offices and laboratories corresponds to the stereotype coroner of mystery novels, movies, and TV.

The Coroner's offices are housed in an attractive modern, one-story building in the County Operations Center on Kearney Mesa. No grim, grey basement corridors here, but pleasant, warm colors, a relaxing atmosphere, and the most modern laboratory and autopsy equipment available.

"Yes, we are responsible for determining the cause of death in suspected homicide cases," says Creason, "but these are less than three percent of our total. We investigate nearly 4,000 cases a year — more than a third of the deaths in San Diego County."



CORONER'S LAB — Sam Peckham left, of La Mesa, and Dennis Kendall, of San Diego check for cause of death and analyze for possible drug abuse. Both are assistant toxicologists in the San Diego County Coroner's laboratory. The facility offers the latest equipment for testing for the presence of all types of poinsons, drugs, alcohol, and carbon monoxide. The coroner employs six full-time toxicologists who run up to 8000 tests a year.

Under the coroner's jurisdiction come all violent, sudden or unusual deaths, accidental or purposeful, and all unexplained deaths. He is called when the attending physician is uncertain about the cause or where there has been no attending physician for ten days or more. By State law, the coroner must determine and certify the cause of death in all these situations. as well as in suicides, deaths while in prison, and those which might be the result of an accident or injury, old or recent.

"The autopsy is especially important in the latter case where there is a question of workmen's compensation, and the death may occur some time after the accident or injury. A widow's or family's pension may hinge on the findings of our pathologists," Creason explains.

Most of the cases require an autopsy to determine the cause of death; the coroner's staff performs at least 200 a month. These autopsies involve 8,000 separate toxicological tests yearly, performed in the highly efficient laboratory where gas chromotography, spectrophotometry, and thin layer paper chromotography are all a part of the day's vocabulary. The ultramodern equipment used in these processes determines even minute amounts of various drugs, poisons, alcohol, or carbon monoxide in the body.

The histology technician prepares more than 500 tissue slides a month for the pathologists to study. A minimum of eight pathologists are always available through a contract with the San Diego Institute of Pathology.

"We represent the decedent, in a sense," says Creason. "He can't ask for help; we determine for him what happened. We are also protection for the community in seeing that wrongful deaths don't get overlooked."

Creason was a police officer for ten years, then a deputy coroner for seven. Even in his early police days, he wanted to become the coroner, and he studied law and aspects of forensic medicine on his own.

He has been San Diego County Coroner for six years. He oversees a staff of 35 including eight deputies who go to the scene of a death and make on-the-spot investigations, nine embalmers, and six toxicologists. There is an embalmer on duty and a deputy on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Creason draws most of his deputies from embalmers or morticians, or from the medical service corps of the Navy. He feels these men are knowledgeable about medical terms and can communicate with doctors.

"There are a lot of misconceptions about our work," points out Creason. "Our function is only to determine the cause and mode of death. It is up to the Sheriff or police lab to run ballistic tests or match fingerprints. We are only concerned with what happened, not who did it."

In spite of the attention given to homicides, his office deals with four times as many suicides. At least a fourth of his cases are accidental deaths — motor vehicle fatalities, home and other accidents.

County May Share Gas Tax With City

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors may allot a million dollars of their gas tax revenue for road work within the city.

Supervisors Jack Walsh and Harry Scheidle were ready to adopt such a policy in principle this week, but were blocked by Supervisors Henry A. Boney and Jim Bear. Another conference has been set for Wednesday.

Scheidle thinks the county should be spending "three or four million dollars" in cities and has said so on numerous occasions.

The county has been getting roughly $10 million from the various gas tax funds and other revenue. It has been the policy in the past to spend this money entirely in the unincorporated territory.

However, counties share this money evenly with all of the cities in the state on the basis of population. The county share is based upon the total puplation, not just that in the non-city areas.

Therefore, as this, or any other county, becomes more urbanized, the ratio of money per road mile changes. Los Angeles County has long shared its gas tax money with the cities.

Morey said the roads under consideration should be major roads or prime arterials that pass in and out of city-county boundaries. He said that it can happen that one jurisdiction cannot match improvements made by another so that bottlenecks are created. College avenue in Lemon Grove is an example.

SV Man Wins $10,000 For False Arrest

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A Spring Valley contractor won a judgement of $10,000 against the California Highway Patrol in a four-day false imprisonment trial which ended late Friday in Superior Court.

Edward Maczko, of 8671 Golf dr., Spring Valley, asked $10,000 for mental anguish and loss of reputation and business and $15,000 for "wanton disregard" of his rights.

The suit grew out of an incident which occurred on Aug. 9, 1969, at the Makebe-Me Beer Bar, at 9849 Campo Rd., Spring Valley, where Maczko had gone after work with some friends to have a beer. One of the friends when leaving the bar drove into a truck.

CHP Officer R. K. Ingram responded to a call and questioned the friend of Maczko involved in the accident. According to witnesses, the officer took the friend's wallet to take out his driver's license, and Mackzo said he should not have the wallet. The officer handed it to Maczko, the testimony was, and the latter counted the money in it, althought the officer told him not to do it.

In an ensuing argument the officer arrested Maczko for resisting arrest. He was handcuffed, taken to the county jail, finger-printed, photographed.

Before a jury began its deliberations, Judge Byron Lindsley ruled there was "no probable cause for arrest." The charge had already been dismissed in El Cajon Municipal Court.

The jury' job was then that of determining the amount of damages, and the vote for the $10,000 award was 11 to one. The state is considered likely to appeal the verdict.

Board Of Directors Named For Lemon Grove Youth Project

The Lemon Grove Youth Center, sponsored by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club, has selected a Board of Directors of six youth members, and has hired a director to begin immediate work on the project.

Grant Underhill, director, announced this week that the Center will rely heavily on community support of this project, both figuratively and literally.

"Since we are gearing to meet the needs of students who are out of sixth grade and under 16 years of age, we need many things to make this project successful from the start," he pointed out. He went on to say that anything that can be donated to the Center would be warmly received and appreciated.

Among those items needed for office supplies are the following: a typewriter, typing paper (8½ x 11), index cards, legal pads, card files, masking and Scotch tape, manila folders, stencils, scissors, pens, pencils, magic markers, and a calendar.

Recreational equipment that could be used consists of a stereo, a pool table, softballs, volleyballs, books, arts and crafts material such as construction paper, glue, crayons, paint, string, and beads, sheets, butcher paper, games, and playing cards.

Among furnishings needed are couches, rugs, mattresses, tables, a "blacklight", light bulbs, posters, poster boards, and thumbtacks.

For information concerning pickup of donated materials, contact Grant Underhill at 233-9670 or drop by the Lemon Grove Youth Center at 3146 School lane, any Saturday.

"The first drive of the Center has been focused on the collection of aluminum cans and newspapers which will add cash in our pockets, but which essentially helps students to zero in on an ecologically sound practice," Underhill said.

Bar Maid Jailed On Pot Charge

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Faysene A. Anderson, 34, a bar waitress at the Coral Inn, 7346 Broadway, Lemon Grove, when he was arrested for a sale of marijuana last October to an undercover agent, surrendered Tuesday to serve a 15-day sentence in the county jail.

Mrs. Anderson, who lived at 3444 Harris st., Lemon Grove, pleaded guilty to possession of marijuana, a lesser charge than furnishing and giving away the narcotic.

The probation report on Mrs. Anderson saaid she felt she should not serve time in custody because of difficulty in getting a baby-sitter and because her husband was to go to jail for violation of probation after pleading guilty on a marijuana charge.

It was learned that her husband was not being sent to jail and Mrs. Anderson was ordered to serve her 15 days.

LG Doctor Re-elected To AAGP

KANSAS CITY, MO. — George B. Brassington, M.D., Lemon Grove, has been re-elected to active membership in the American Academy of General Practice, the national association of family doctors.

Re-election signifies that the physician has successfully completed 150 hours of accredited postgraduate medical study in the last three years. Members become eligible for re-election at the end of the third year following their election to membership.

The Academy, the country's second largest national medical association, is the only national medical group that requires members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

The Academy, founded in 1947 and headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., has been instrumental in the establishment of a new primary medical specialty in family practice. The new specialty is expected to increase the numbers of family physicians available to serve the public in the future.

The Academy's postgraduate education program is the foundation of eligibility for family doctors now in practice who apply for certification in the new specialty.

Spring Valley Litter Campaign Called Success

The annual Spring Valley Beautiful Campaign, held Saturday and Sunday in Spring Valley, has been called a huge success by Bill Fitzpatrick, president of the Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring group of the campaign.

Fitzpatrick cited outstanding participation by both residents of the area and service groups helping by manning trash collection points.

Fitzpatrick also noted great work by the three participating disposal services, Thomas and Son Disposal, Sani-Tainer Disposal, and Dependable Disposal, as a contribution to the campaign.

The thing that made this year's campaign more successful than previous campaigns, Fitzpatrick said, was that "we got the stuff that we were going for, like water heaters, broken furniture, rugs, car seats, and mattresses."

Fitzpatrick said that many of the items discarded in seven bins furnished by the disposal companies were the things that are usually strewn about on vacant lots and property contributing to "sight pollution."

Herb Ketell, chairman of the campaign, cited residents expressing appreciation as one factor contributing to the success of the campaign.

"We reached a lot more people this year," Ketell said, "and cleaned up an awful lot of trash."

Corral Ford Name Now Official

Corral Ford, 7220 Broadway, Lemon Grove, is now the official name of the Ford dealership formerly known as Pat Grace Ford.

The change in the name, which was decided upon in February when Lyle Contway and Joe Miller bought the corporation from Pat Grace, was approved last Friday.

Corral Ford will have a full circle of operations, according to Miller, who said that the dealership will offer complete service and body shop facilities.

The corporation will sell new and used trucks, used cars of all makes, as well as new and used Fords. Corral is also the local distributor of "Flying L" horsetrailers.

Additionally, the business has opened a lease operation and Ford Rent-a-Car system, handling mainly new Fords. The operation is now in full swing, Miller said.

A complete finance and insurance service is also included, Miller added.

Alexandria, Va., was founded in 1749.

Local Girl Enters East County Contest

A young Spring Valley woman is among the first entries in the El Cajon Jaycees' contest to select Miss Eastern San Diego County Fair of 1971.

Miss Laurie Ann Ferris, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferris, 9634 Vista Del Sol, Spring Valley, will compete for the title May 12.

Laurie Ferris

The brunette, who lists ice skating, swimming and piano as her special interests, studied at Sawyer Business College and plans to be a secretary. She also attended Monte Vista High School.

Inland Acts Scheduled At Exposition

Eleven groups from the Inland Empire, ranging from Polish dancers to gospel rock singers to obedience-trained dogs, will make a total of 15 appearances on stages of the Southern California Exposition during its June 24-July 5 run.

Their acts are part of a program of continuous free entertainment on the Don Diego, Community and Dance Floor stages on the fair-twice-a-day shows on the Grandstand stage.

Grandstand stage shows for the June 24-29 period will feature the Wenatches Youth Circus at 2 p.m. and famed TV-radio-motion picture-recording artist Lou Rawls at 8 p.m. A championship rodeo and Ken Curtis, who plays Gunsmoke's Festus, will take over afternoon and evening shows respectively during the remainder of the fair.

The Polish Dancers of El Cajon will appear on the Dance Floor stage June 30 at 1 and 3 p.m. Rising sons, a gospel rock group directed by Thomas Brown of Lemon Grove, sings on June 24 at 3 p.m. on the Don Diego stage. The dogs, from the All-Breed Obedience Club under direction of Jamul's Doris Nemeth, perform on June 25 at 7 p.m. on the Dance Floor stage.

Also, on the Community Stage, will be La Mesa singer-guitarist Michele Marsh at 5 p.m. on both June 30 and July 1; Jean's Dance Studios of Spring Valley on July 4 at 1 p.m.; and The Cashews, instrumentalists, singers and dancers from Lakeside, at 1 p.m. on both July 1 and 2.

Rain Total Moves Up

Ray Carmody issued a warning this week as the rain totals were given.

"Disc up fields now while the ground is soft," he urged. "There will be no burning this year," he added.

Last year, warnings were issued by the Fire Departments in both Lemon Grove and Spring Valley regarding weed-fire hazards. Citations will be issued this year if necessary, he said.

In Spring Valley, Battalion Chief Stanley Mourning, said that bike owners, riding through fields without flame arrestors on their bikes, will be cited this year.

Band Concert Set

The annual Spring Band Concert will be presented by the Music Department at Southwestern College Sunday at 3 p.m. in Mayan Hall, according to Richard Robinette, band director.

The concert will include "Lyric Dance by Bencriscutto, Adageo and Allegro by Haddad, "Symphonic Movement" by Goldstein and selections from "Paint Your Wagon".
